The Modesty of Women
Naturally makes them shrink from the delicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispels the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It is almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrap, contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients will be found in the pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 21 stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

ROYAL WEDDING.

Prince Wilhelm, of Sweden, second son of King Gustave, the popular sailor prince who visited America in 1907, was married yesterday afternoon to Grand Duchess Marie Pavlovna, a cousin of the Emperor of Russia and daughter of Grand Duke Paul Alexandrovich. The ceremony took place at Tsarskoe-Selo, St. Petersburg, and was accompanied by all the pomp and brilliant display of colors characteristic of the most stately court in Europe.

The day was marked by frequent heavy falls of snow, which, however, failed to chill the enthusiasm of the great crowds that gathered around the palace to catch a glimpse of the emperor and other royal personages and the arriving guests. The crowd stood for hours in the bleak and muddy square until the conclusion of the ceremony.

In the evening a great state banquet was served at which toasts were drunk to the good understanding between Sweden and Russia recently reached in the Baltic agreement, to which yesterday's wedding—the first in modern times between the ruling houses of two countries—puts the seal.

The beginning of the nuptial ceremonies was announced by the firing of five guns simultaneously at 9 o'clock yesterday morning by the battery at Tsarskoe-Selo and by the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul in St. Petersburg. This was but the beginning of the noisy acclamations, for the thunder of salutes was heard almost uninterruptedly throughout the afternoon and the evening.

The wedding guests who took part in the ceremony assembled at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the great palace at Tsarskoe-Selo. Only Premier Stolypin, the members of the cabinet, the president of the Duma and the president of the council of state, the principal ambassadors to Russia and their wives and a few of the highest dignitaries of the empire found place, in the small blue and gold chapel of the palace, where the orthodox ceremony was performed. The other guests were stationed according to their rank in the various salons and halls through which the bridal procession passed.

The robing of the bride was performed in accordance with court custom in the private apartments of the empress. She was dressed by the empress and the dowager empress, assisted by their maids of honor and their ladies-in-waiting. The bride wore on her head a jeweled diadem, and from her shoulders hung a long trained mantle of strawberry velvet, lined with ermine. In the procession the train of this garment was borne by five court chamberlains.

HOTEL DESTROYED BY FIRE.

At least 12 persons lost their lives in a fire which destroyed the New Avenue Hotel, at Fort Wayne, Ind., at an early hour yesterday morning. The entire interior of the building is a smoldering heap of ruins and how many dead are concealed by the debris can only be conjectured.

The hotel register was consumed by the fire and there is no means of determining who is missing.

The complete destruction of the interior of the hotel makes the work of recovering bodies a difficult task. A confused heap of charred wood, bricks and twisted girders is piled up between the walls to the second story. Piece by piece this must be removed before the roll of the dead can be completed. Some of the bodies taken out are mangled and charred beyond recognition.

The fire was discovered at 3:30 o'clock in the morning in the elevator shaft when the guests were aroused.

The hotel was erected half a century ago and the work was dry as tinder. It burned like matchwood and within a few minutes from the time the fire was discovered the whole interior of the hotel was a mass of flames and the only means of escape left was by the windows. The fire department rescued many by means of ladders, but some, frenzied by the rush of the flames, leaped from windows to the streets and were killed or seriously injured.

SOCIAL EQUALITY DENOUNCED.

Denunciation of the "social equality" dinner in New York, when colored men and women sat with whites at the same table, and the doctrine of the final amalgamation of the two races was expounded by some of the speakers, was heard from practically every negro pulpit in Richmond yesterday and last night, the colored preachers advising their hearers in every instance that the salvation of the colored race lies not in social equality and the impossible hope of intermarriage between the races, but in honesty of purpose, thrift in business, and morality in living among the negroes themselves.

The preachers were unanimous in their condemnation of what they termed an attempt to adjust the difficulties of the race by impossible means. The southern negro, it was pointed out, knows full well that social equality will never be tolerated in the south. The negroes were advised that the southern white people are their best friends, ready to stand by them, and help them in all their difficulties if only they will be honest and moral and thrifty, and not allow their heads to be turned by the teachings of enthusiastic but badly informed friends, such as were present in New York on the occasion of the dinner in question. The negroes who were present, it was held, were more the enemies than the friends of their race in the south.
